ALEXANDRA LOCAL WINS $15,000 MAJOR PRIZE IN NATIONAL FOODWORKS PROMOTION

Alexandra local Tanya Rusden has won the major prize of $15,000 worth of groceries in the 2009 FoodWorks Bottomless Pantry Promotion.

With only a few days to go until Christmas, the windfall has come at a great time for Tanya and her family.

“This a fantastic surprise especially being so close to Christmas. This will keep the pantry full for a really long time which is great,” Tanya said.

FoodWorks Alexandra store manager Linda Hughes was thrilled to be able to give Tanya the good news.

“The Alexandra community are really strong supporters of our store so it was fantastic to see one of our customers win such a fantastic prize,” Linda said.

“Tanya was so excited to hear the news she dropped the phone when I told her,” she said.

“The FoodWorks Bottomless Pantry competition was open nationally to any FoodWorks customer who spent $20 in-store in a single transaction. There were tens of thousands entries received so she was very lucky to win,” Linda said.

FoodWorks Alexandra is located at 102 Grant Street, Alexandra. The store is open from 8:00am – 8:00pm seven days a week.
