Bacchus Marsh Junior Football Club raises $6,500

Bacchus Marsh Junior Football Club raised $6,500 at their recent fundraising luncheon held at St Bernard's Parish Centre.

FoodWorks Bacchus Marsh was the major sponsor of the luncheon which was attended by special guests Patti Newton, Tracey Bartram, Michelle Timms and Brian Taylor.

Event organiser Raelene Hawkins was thrilled with the support from sponsors and the local community for the event.

"The support of FoodWorks and our other sponsors is very important to the success of our fundraising events, such as our recent lunch, and of the ongoing success of our club," Ms Hawkins said.

"The local community are also fantastic and we thank them for their ongoing support. The funds we raised will go towards purchasing new equipment for the club," she said.

FoodWorks Bacchus Marsh owner, Susan Lau said the store was happy to support the local community.

"We are proud to support the Bacchus Marsh Junior Football Club and other community organisations. We are glad to be able to give back to the community that supports our store," Ms Lau said.

"We sponsor both the senior and junior football clubs as well as most other sporting clubs around the district," she said.

FoodWorks Bacchus Marsh is located at 1-9 Bennett St Bacchus Marsh. The store is open from seven days a week from 6:45am till 9:00pm.
