Shareholder Update Australian United Retailers Limited (AURL)

AURL today reported a consolidated profit after tax of $2.4 million for the year ended 30 June 2017.

The result reflects the ability of the AUR retailers to continue to deliver positive sales growth in competitive market conditions.

AURL's CEO, Mr Rick Wight said "the implementation of a retail format approach that better meets the needs of individual retailers, has greatly assisted in optimising both sales and profitability of our retail network and the business".

The Board today was pleased to declare a fully franked final dividend for 2017 of 3c per share, taking the full year dividend to 6c. The 2017 final dividend will be paid in October 2017.
